

Fly on over to the Annual

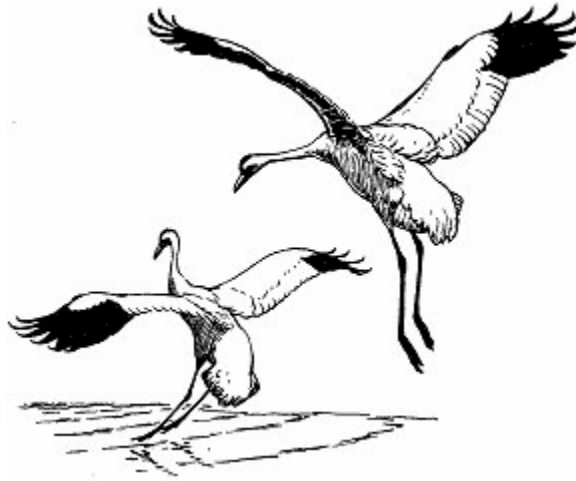

Patuxent Wildlife Festival

October 15, 2005

10:00 am – 3:00 pm

National Wildlife Visitor Center

Patuxent Research Refuge

Live animals and research displays.

Behind-the-scenes tours of the USGS Patuxent Wildlife Research Center (including endangered whooping crane rearing facilities).

Children's activities, tram tours, nature hikes and exhibits.

All ages welcome. FREE (except for tram tours).

The National Wildlife Visitor Center is located off of Powder Mill Rd. between the Baltimore Washington Parkway & Route 197 south of Laurel. If you have any special needs please advise us at least two weeks in advance by calling 301.497.5763 or TDD 301.497.5779. For directions or more information visit <http://patuxent.fws.gov> For research information, visit <http://www.pwrc.usgs.gov>

